

Klender, the Most Beloved Dutch Family Calendar App, Now Also Available in the UK!

28 December 2024

After years of development in close collaboration with Dutch families, family calendar Klender is finally here to help UK families tackle the chaos of modern family life.

Klender offers the perfect solution for keeping everyone in the family on the same page, whether it's managing schedules, birthdays, or shared lists.

What Makes Klender Special?

The Klender app is designed for simplicity and flexibility, combining all the features a busy family needs into one app, like:

- A shared calendar accessible on all devices (Android, iOS, and web).
- Colour-coded family members for clear organisation.
- Shared lists for groceries, tasks, or holiday plans.
- A birthday calendar and easy import of external schedules.
- Privacy-focused: no commercial use of your data.

Goodbye Chaos, Hello 2025!

Klender helps families simplify their lives and start 2025 on the right foot.

Klender is the family organiser that turns confusion into clarity. It's the only family calendar app receiving glowing reviews from families in the Netherlands, Germany and Belgium every day. Now, UK families can experience why Klender is so beloved.

Download the free Klender app today and bring organisation and peace to your family's busy schedule.
